EXTREMELY GOOD AT

- All-rounder at all things commercial – reviewing and drafting commercial contracts, privacy and data, franchising, and modern slavery
- Dancing with those twin devils ‘terms and conditions’
- Will draft you a bespoke privacy policy in his sleep

HIGHLIGHTS

- Helping not-for-profits become registered charities and pulling together Marque’s first Quarterly Impact Statement
- Convincing half of the firm that we’re living in a simulation

CLAIM TO FAME

Won ‘buys the most lunch’ award at the Marque Christmas party

USELESS NICHE EXPERTISE

Can recite the NATO alphabet back to front

FOOD PHOBIA

Recently ate a kiwi fruit for the first time. Not that good, 10/10 wouldn’t do again

Special shoutout to “Acai” – never tried it but seems suspicious
