

KIERA PEACOCK

PARTNER

Social enterprise and human rights | Commercial litigation |
Dispute resolution | Regulatory and compliance | Cross-border disputes

+612 8216 3021 kierap@marquelawyers.com.au

EXTREMELY GOOD AT

- Commercial litigation
- Climate law
- Electoral law
- Public law – administrative, constitutional and international

HIGHLIGHTS

- Centrebet v Baasland – declaration in NT Supreme Court of no liability for Centrebet over compulsive online gambler's losses in Norway
- Uelese v Minister for Immigration & Border Protection & Anor - successful High Court challenge to AAT's approach to receiving new evidence
- LFDB v SM – testing the enforcement of a New Zealand judgment under the Trans-Tasman Proceedings Act
- Animals Angels v Secretary, Department of Agriculture – admin law challenge relating to live export industry and standing of activist groups
- Significant infrastructure litigation looking at professional negligence of traffic forecasters in failed toll road
- Advising on potential High Court challenge to asylum seeker legislation
- Numerous other cases and pre-dispute advisory work for multinational clients involving questions of negligence, breach of contract and statutory causes of action such as misleading or deceptive conduct.
- Johnston v The Greens NSW – acting for the Greens NSW in relation to the order of its candidature for the 2019 state election

CLAIM TO FAME

(Minor) role in independent French film, 2010

USELESS NICHE EXPERTISE

European approach to forum shopping

FOOD PHOBIA

Mango