EXTREMELY GOOD AT

- General commercial: drafting, reviewing, advising on, and negotiating a range of commercial agreements, including master services agreements, manufacturing, vendors, licensing, NDAs, and terms and conditions
- Technology: advising on and drafting SaaS agreements and terms of use, service level agreements, product development, and software licensing
- Websites and e-Commerce: drafting online terms of use
- Renewable energy: up to date on latest policies, advising on and drafting agreements related to service providers, manufacturing, joint ventures and funding
- Not-for-profit law: assessing charitable purposes and drafting constitutions, ACNC registration, DGR and fundraising advice

HIGHLIGHTS

- Working on defamation law reforms
- Negotiating service agreements for the Alice Springs Future Grid Project
- Assisting a VPP Provider to deliver a multi stakeholder supply arrangement under the state government solar battery subsidy program
- Being quoted in Lawyers Weekly about the Climate Change Act and its potential for the legal sector to push forward climate action
- Advising an environmental organisation with a focus on electrification as a method of decarbonisation on best avenues for setting up a charity with DGR

CLAIM TO FAME

One of my tweets was once quoted in a prominent business journal article about a particularly misogynistic IPO for a beer company

USELESS NICHE EXPERTISE

Drafting conventions for NSW legislation

FOOD PHOBIA

Anything with eyes
